FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Select Transport Partners Acquires Aegis Logistics, Expands Services and Capabilities

Charlotte, NC – [Date] – Select Transport Partners is excited to announce the acquisition of Aegis Logistics Group, a North Carolina based freight brokerage. This strategic acquisition marks a significant milestone in Select Transport Partners' mission to deliver unparalleled logistics solutions throughout North America.

Select Transport Partners is led by Chris Cobb, the founder and former CEO of Armstrong Transport Group, a top 25 freight brokerage. After taking time off from the logistics industry, Chris is excited to be working with the Select team to drive innovation and growth. With this acquisition, Aegis Logistics will continue to service their customers and carriers from their base in Matthews, NC, ensuring seamless continuity and exceptional service.

Chris Cobb expressed his enthusiasm about the acquisition, stating, "We are excited to welcome Aegis Logistics to the Select Transport Partners family. This acquisition allows us to leverage their expertise and customer relationships while integrating our advanced technology and expansive agent and carrier network."

As part of this acquisition, Select Transport Partners plans to grow and scale an agency based brokerage model. Central to this plan is the implementation of a cutting-edge, AI-powered proprietary Transportation Management System (TMS). This innovative platform is designed to cater to agents, customers, and carriers, enhancing efficiency and streamlining operations.

The integration of Aegis Logistics into Select Transport Partners will expand the company's service offerings and strengthen its ability to provide customized solutions to meet clients' unique needs. The combined expertise and resources will ensure that existing and new customers receive the highest service and support. Daniel Scherrer, the president and founder of Aegis Logistics, expressed his enthusiasm, stating, "I am thrilled to join the Select Transport Partners team. This partnership allows me to focus my time and energy on our customers and staff rather than the complexities of running a business. I am confident that together, we will continue to deliver exceptional service and innovative solutions to our clients."
